'Stewards Of The Earth, Eager to Learn, Faithful To God'

WORLD BOOK DAY AT TURNERS HILL by William Colbran

On Thursday 1st March, Turners Hill School enjoyed a day of fun. The children were allowed to dress up as their favourite book character and show some style! Everybody's costumes were exquisite – all thanks to the wonderful parents – and the teachers all had a good laugh dressing up as their favourite characters! The students participated in activities such as making up their own superhero/villain, writing questionnaires for their favourite authors and many more. During assembly, the staff read their favourite books to the children – two of them, Miss Constable and Mrs Stone, even performed a dance! Thank you for all of your support that allows us to put on events like this.
